

Probably the best beer
in the Bunwer League

ass.com

ass.com Fútbol

Miercoles, 12 Noviembre de 2008

Inicio JJ.OO. Fútbol Baloncesto Motor Tenis Ciclismo Más deporte Opinión Blogs Participa

Buscar

Primera | Eurocopa Bunwer | Segunda | Segunda B | Copa del Rey | Liga de campeones | Copa de la UEFA | Italia | Inglaterra | Alemania | Francia | Más fútbol

F.C. Britanico 7 - 1 CD Parque Movil

Britanicos extend record breaking winning streak to eight matches

On paper this was not going to be an easy game for the Britanicos. In fact the two sides have had a history of close encounters in the past couple of seasons. Although what springs to mind more than any recent result, is the sight of half the CD Parque team chasing Terry across the potato field in el Pardo trying to give the lippy young Greek a good kick in. Be warned never to be too derogatory about your opponent's mother nor the sexuality of his father!

Saturday's encounter, however, was over way before half time. Both sides started brightly but it was goal machine Dave Hughes, who scored after 10 minutes with a superb individual effort to give FC Britanico an early lead. However, the lead did not last long as some sloppy FCB play in midfield allowed CD Parque to break quickly and score to draw them level.

This acted as a wake up call for the Britanicos as they soon started to raise their game. It did not take long for Hughsie to pounce on to another through ball and finish powerfully to hand FCB back the advantage. He then added another two trade mark goals before Hatim scored a superb long range effort to put Britanicos out of sight with 10 minutes of the first half remaining.

The second half saw the match open up a bit, but FCB knew they had already won and CD Parque played like a team, who knew they didn't have a chance in hell of getting anything from the game. Thus all players went through the motions with the occasional attack being mustered by both sides.

The only highlights were player manager Rami bringing himself on (is he after the 6 appearances required to qualify for a potential league winners medal?) in place of Hatim, both Gary and Martin O almost scoring thier first goals of the season and Dave Hughes adding another two to his already outstanding goal tally. Congratulations to him from the ASS team on his double hattrick!

Ultimately both teams were somewhat glad to hear the final whistle. For Britanicos it was an easy morning's work, which keeps them sitting pretty at the top of the table, ahead of a difficult tie against Union Seleccion next Saturday.

Until next week ASS chums!

Madrid, November, 11th, chief editor

Britanicos: Felipe, Diego, Martin O, Omar, Gary, Jonas, Dave P, Mente, Hatim (1), Dave H (6), Prince, Simon, Rami

